From Brand: Springer : Aging: Caring for Our Elders (International Library of Ethics, Law, and the New Medicine) (v. 2) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Aging: Caring for Our Elders (International Library of Ethics, Law, and the New Medicine) (v. 2):

Positive conceptions of healthy aging are rightly displacing negative ageist perceptions of older members of our society. Nevertheless, at some stage, most elderly citizens will require some form of assistance from other members of society. When the body or mind begins to fail, a legitimate need for intervention and care will arise. This second volume on Aging discusses this theme.
