No agency should be without a complete, up-to-date set of homecare rules, as published in The Home Health Conditions of Participation and Interpretive Guidelines. You ll find it indispensable for staff training, orientation, and care delivery guidance. Stop spending precious time searching the CMS website, trying to find the home health regulations you need. This manual brings together all of Medicare's home health Conditions of Participation and Interpretive Guidelines in one place. Beacon Health's version of The Home Health Conditions of Participation and Interpretive Guidelines is more valuable than the government's original version because: It is updated to reflect the recent revisions to the Interpretive Guidelines All home health rules are in one place It's easier to use. It maintains the original column format to display G-tags, regulations, and Interpretive Guidelines You'll find information faster with its comprehensive index and frequently consulted sections presented in boldface type

About the Author ed by: J non Griffin, RN, MHA J non is a 24 year veteran of home care as an RN. She received her Master's Degree in Health Care Administration in 2005. She has experience as a field nurse, director and executive with home health and hospice agencies, both large and small. She has served as Director of Staff Development and Appeals for home health and hospice agencies. She has taken part in mock surveys for agencies, and prepared agencies for accreditation. She has been involved in accreditation surveys, acquisitions and many regulatory crises with state survey agencies and the intermediary. As Regional Director of Operations for a home care company, J non was ultimately responsible for the operations of several branch agencies. She completed billing audits, supervised personnel, handled employment issues and trained managers. Part of her responsibilities have included risk management, acting as Compliance Officer, development of policies and forms, survey compliance, appeals of Medicare denials, writing Corrective Action Plans, start-ups of parent and branch agencies, consulting with agencies on a variety of subjects and education of staff. J non currently is the Principal with Home Health Solutions, LLC, a consulting company for home health and hospice.
