About the Author Annette Lee, RN, MS, HCS-D, COS-C, is a registered nurse practicing since 1990; the majority of her nursing experience is in public healthcare, and she holds a master's degree in healthcare administration. In 2000 she joined the home health intermediary Cahaba GBA and became a sought-after instructor, providing education to home health and hospice providers on Medicare reimbursement issues and effective documentation strategies. After nearly a decade, she founded Provider Insights, Inc. In the private sector, she was able to inform home health agencies on Medicare regulations and how to make them work for agencies on a day-to-day basis to increase quality and reduce risk. Most recently, the Medicare Administrative Contractor CGS contracted Provider Insights to perform all of its clinical education for home health and hospice providers. Lee's broad range of experience makes her uniquely able to provide practical solutions to meet the requirements of the fiscal intermediary system and medical review within the real-world environment of hospice and home health. She presents nationally on hospice, LCDs, home health coverage, OASIS, PPS, medical review/appeals, documentation, and coverage.
